

For you to allow Sinclair to air such partisan slander without any sort of response from the other side would be in direct violation of the public interest standard.